

High School Pastor – West Campus

Christ Chapel Bible Church

Success Profile

Full-Time | Exempt

Christ Chapel's Mission:

"To stretch every involved person from the threshold of their spiritual pilgrimage toward becoming a fully-developing follower of Christ" (Col 1:28-29).

CCBC Student Ministries Mission:

CCBC Student Ministries exists to help students take the next step in their relationship with Jesus so that they graduate from our ministry and walk with Jesus for a lifetime.

Role's Mission:

Because helping high schoolers take the next step in their walk with Jesus is essential to them becoming fully mature Christ followers, the High School Pastor will be the Ambassador, Team Builder and Primary Communicator for all aspects for the High School Ministry:

- As the Ambassador for the high school ministry, you will create an environment where students want to belong because they are known, cared for, and challenged to take the next step in their faith. You will also partner with parents to equip them to foster faith formation at home. To reach more students for Christ you will also build bridges to schools and the community.
- As the Team Builder, you will recruit, train, and encourage a team of staff and leaders who are committed to the vision of reaching high schoolers for Jesus and discipling them in their faith. You will multiply yourself so that every student has adult who knows them and is helping them take the next step in their faith. You will also be the standard bearer for a healthy leadership culture.
- As the Primary Communicator, you will connect the word of God hearts of high schoolers so they can apply it to their everyday lives. You'll see to it that all teaching and curriculum in the ministry is Biblical, creative, and age-appropriate for high schoolers.

Reporting Relationship:

This position reports directly to the West Campus Pastor and to the Central Student Pastor 5th-12th as a ministry coach.
